How to play:

Each player is given a different colour of playdough

Player 1 rolls the die and makes that many decorations (baubles) for the tree and then places them on the tree.

Player 2 rolls the die and does the same.

When the tree is full each player must add up their baubles and the player with the most wins.

You could record the results for each game below.

Variations of the game:

When the tree is full each player can roll the die again but this time take the decorations off the tree. The first player to take all their decorations off the tree is the winner.
